New York, July 1, 2020:

WATCH TOM CONROY, MEDSIGN CEO TOMORROW ON FOX BUSINESS NETWORK'S "MORNINGS WITH MARIA"

Tom Conroy, MedSign International CEO and Inventor of Qortex™ will be featured on Fox Business Network's "Mornings with Maria" on Thursday, July 2, 2020. So, grab your 'cup of joe' as anchor Maria Bartiromo alongside a roundtable of industry titans and economic experts discuss Qortex, and how it can deliver Telehealth services and access to quality care to underserved communities including the elderly, technology averse, veterans and rural communities across the country.

Qortex, a first-of-its-kind home TV-based Telehealth solution enables hospitals doctors, nurses, home health agencies and others to deliver virtual medical services 24/7/365 to patients in their homes, using what they know best... their own TV. Family members and loved ones can also use Qortex to see and talk to each other, all in the comfort of home.

Be sure and watch this special segment of "Mornings with Maria" on Fox Business starting at 6:00 am. For those of you who aren't early risers, you can set to record the show. You don't want to miss Tom Conroy as he discusses the benefits and capabilities of Qortex to the Nation.
